Matthew Berke- Principal

Matt began his real estate career in 1993 as a licensed sales associate while still attending Wayne State University. From 1999, when he was promoted to Vice President at Beale Group, through 2011 Matt held a primary leadership role as part of the management team, overseeing daily operations as well as staff training and development. In 2012 Matt formed Keystone Commercial Real Estate with the entire sales team and staff of the Beale Group to better serve his clients. Matt received his broker's license in 2001 and is currently a CCIM candidate. He is active with the International Council of Shopping Centers and Commercial Board of Realtors and has received the Costar Power Broker award. Matt continues to work on tenant representation, investment sales and handling selected leasing accounts.
