Ryan Kattoo- Principal

Ryan Kattoo has been licensed as a real estate agent since 1992. He began his career with Beale Group in 1995 and in February 2011 he was promoted to Vice President. Receiving his first degree in business administration at Oakland Community College in 1993, he then continued his education at Walsh College receiving a bachelors degree in 1996 majoring in the field of finance. While attending college, he owned and operated his own business while still remaining active in the real estate field. He is currently a member of ICSC (International Council of Shopping Centers) and working towards a CCIM (Certified Commercial Investment Member) designation. Awarded Power Broker from the CoStar Group, and now a founding principal of Keystone Commercial Real Estate, Ryan oversees our management division while handling select leasing accounts and investment sale projects.
